TO PRINTERS.

TO PRINTERS.—AT A REGULAR MEETING OF THE New York Printers' Union, held on Saturday evening, April 17, 1852, the resolution of this Union, recognizing the New York Sun as a fair office, was resoluted, in consequence of the proprietor of that paper having reduced the wages of the journeymen employed by them to rat prices. Journeymen Printers are requested to give the Sun a wide berth, at the same meeting the following Circular was received and ordered to be published:

CIRCULAR—TO THE JOURNEYMEN PRINTERS OF NEW YORK.

Gentlemen: We are at present on a strike; and the reasons will be simply stated, as follows: Some four or free weeks since a journeyman by the name of Andrew Dunn came to this place, and procured employment at the office of the Pennsylvania Telograph, (he having previously been employed in New York, Philadelphia, and Cincinnati,) and not furnishing a card from either of those places, the Union took immediate action in the case, and granted him two weeks, indulgence, in order that he might be able to obtain his card, if he was actually entitled to one. Having obtained no card in the time allowed by our Union, the jearneymen employed in the office with him respectfully asked his discharge, which the employers, Heeste. Fenn & Co., refused to submit to. We have understood that Messes. Fenn & Co., have written to various parts of the country for journeymen. We would respectfully ask you to use your best endeavors to keep men from coming here.

Yours, &c., R. C. Fleming, John G. Reid,
M. B. Montgomery, J. Henry Chayne,
S. E. Murphy, Buisiness Committee.
